

Predictive Health Research Program (PredictER) 2009 ~Fall Schedule

Date	Time	Presentation
AUGUST
17	3p-4p	Katherine Drabiak-Syed will present “Revisiting the USPTO’s Examination Guidelines for Gene Patents: Congressional Inaction, USPTO Restraint, and Judicial Remedy?”
31	3p-4p	Jenny Girod and Andy Klein will present “Predictive Health and Toxic Torts”
SEPTEMBER
21	3:30p-4:30p	George Sledge and Pamela Perry will present “Physician and Patient Experience of Recurrent Cancer Treatment; Pharmacogenomics and Personalized Medicine”
OCTOBER
26	3:00p-4:00p	Robert Katz will present “The Tissue Transplantation Industry: A Case Study in How Market Actors Can Reduce Transaction Costs by Economizing on Moral Externalities”
NOVEMBER
4	12p-1p	Norman Daniels will present “Comparative Effectiveness”
16	2p-3p	Peter Schwartz will present “Using Numbers to Change Minds: Using ‘Personalized’ Risk and Benefit Data to Influence Decision Making in Medicine”
DECEMBER
7	3p-4p	David Haas and Becky Ross will present “The Pregnancy and Newborn Biobanks on Campus- Collecting Specimens for the Future”

Predictive Health Ethics Research (PredictER) is a multidisciplinary research, policy and public education program of the Indiana University Center for Bioethics funded by a grant from the Richard M. Fairbanks Foundation, Inc. Indianapolis.

Contact Information

Indiana University Center for Bioethics; 410 W 10th Street, Suite 3100; Indianapolis, IN 46202

Tel: 317-278-4034; Fax: 317-278-4050; Email: cntbioet@iupui.edu